QUICK REVIEW

What's one thing from last weekend's sermon you hope we talk about as a group?

INTO GOD'S WORD

This week's message focused on mothers and the honor due them for the incredible role they have been given by God. We talked about how mothers are uniquely situated to have an impact that is lasting.

How did Eunice and Lois, and the genuine faith they helped instill in Timothy, have a lasting impact that went beyond Timothy's life?

Agree/ Disagree: When mothers recognize the incredible privilege they have to address spiritual needs, every aspect of the nurture and care they provide will be heightened.

In this week's message we talked about the honor that is due our mothers. Look up the following passages and discuss the specific ways in which God's Word directs us to honor our parents, as well as the reasons given for showing honor in that way.

Deuteronomy 5:16

Proverbs 1:8-9

Colossians 3:20

1 Timothy 5:8

INTO MY LIFE

We owe honor not only to our own mothers, but to all of the mothers in our life. Honoring mothers is not only about thanking them for what they do, but supporting them in their role as a mother.

Start making a list of the many different mothers you know.

Do you know of any specific ways that you can honor and support these mothers? Have you asked them?

What plans do you want to make and prayers do you want to speak that you may honor these mothers more and more?
