

LISTENING GUIDE

Genesis 11:1-9 – Lessons From Babel

1. Babel teaches us that _____ God's gifts, but _____ God's gifts.
2. The people abused God's gifts out of sinful _____ and in direct _____ to God.
3. God's commands are privileges to be _____ and _____ to receive.
4. The human heart twists God's commands into _____ and _____.
5. In response, God _____ down with his _____.
  - 1) Jesus _____ God's gifts perfectly.
  - 2) At Pentecost the Holy Spirit led the Apostles to use God's gift of language to share God's _____.
  - 3) Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be _____.
6. _____ is God's gift that _____ our hearts to _____ his gifts.

FOR FURTHER THOUGHT

QUESTIONS ARE PROVIDED FOR PERSONAL STUDY DURING THE WEEK.

1. This week's introduction focused on language as a gift of God that we might sometimes take for granted. Can you think of other day to day gifts from God that we might take for granted?

2. Read the Ten Commandments in Deuteronomy 5:1-21. Do those verses help you add anything to the list of daily gifts from God?

3. What practical steps do you want to take this week to avoid abusing God's good gifts and to use them for his glory?
