

LISTENING GUIDE

2 Corinthians 5:14-21 – Reconciliation Compels Us

1. I might be most _____ when I stand and _____ destruction unfold.
2. I have been granted the power to _____.
3. A _____ point of view can keep me from using this power, when I see the people I meet as _____ for my fulfillment.
4. A _____ way to view others begins with a better way to view _____.
5. God saw the _____ of sin and death and _____ with his almighty _____.
6. Christ saw me as someone he could _____, _____, and _____ to God.
7. I can _____ for him who died for me as I...
 - 1) _____ others as Christ sees them.
 - 2) Make God's _____ to them on Christ's behalf.

NEXT STEPS

QUESTIONS ARE PROVIDED FOR PERSONAL STUDY AND APPLICATION TO TAKE THIS MESSAGE DEEPER INTO YOUR LIFE.

1. As we “make God’s appeal” to others to be reconciled in Christ, some will reject this message, but others will accept it. In Mark 6:7-13, Jesus sent out the disciples without any food, money, or extra clothes. These would be provided by those who accepted their message and served as evidence of the power of the gospel. What evidence of the power of the gospel have you been privileged to witness as you have spoken God’s appeal?

2. Think of two people in your life whom you see “destruction” overwhelm because they don’t have a firm faith in Jesus. Plan how you will be Christ’s ambassador and make God’s appeal to them to be reconciled to him. Compose a prayer asking God’s blessings as you do so.

